1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 4, 6 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Koyanagi. Koyanagi discloses the claimed subject matter including a deck structure including a deck 34, a seat 114, a rear portion 90, an opening 170, a bridge 170, and a cover (bottom of the seat, the seat pan, note Figure 6 for example).
3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 2 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Koyanagi in view of Yamada. Koyanagi does not disclose an inner lid. Yamada et al teaches a compartment with an inner lid 166. It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to form the compartment of Koyanagi with an inner lid for improved sealing.
5. Claims 3, 5, 8, and 10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Tsumiyama et al shows an inner lid.
